DAILY DEMOCRAT-FORUM

(Successor to the Maryville Republican)

VOLUME 2. MARYVILLE, MISSOURI, SATURDAY, JULY 15, 1911. NO. 36.

COUNCIL MUST ACT

RELIEF IN WATER SITUATION MUST COME FROM THEM.

COMPANY TO DO NOTHING

Local Manager Informed the Council Friday that the Company Would Spend No Money.

Another meeting of the city council was held Friday evening, but nothing was done on the water situation, except that the board decided that they would go to the river Saturday and look over the conditions there.

The members of the city council should have informed themselves fully on this matter before this time, as this is the biggest problem Maryville has ever had on hand, pertaining to the health and welfare of the community. The time for investigation is past; the time for immediate action is here if the interests of Maryville and her people are to be properly protected.

Since the City Water company refuses to turn a hand to relieve the situation, unless they can see a franchise in sight, it is up to the members of the council to solve the problem for the time being. There is not much promise right now of any big rains, or enough to improve the situation at the river for probably two months. A heavy rain is necessary to make any improvement. This being the case, what should be done to relieve the situation for the present? One way which is feasible and would perhaps be the best would be to dig wells on the 102 river.

While the expense of getting the machinery here to dig the well would probably be very great, wouldn't it be worth it to the city when the health and welfare of the community is at stake? Should the council at the present time be afraid of spending any amount of money when we have confronting us such a serious matter that will probably continue for another month or so and would endanger the lives of our people?

Another way to improve the situation, some think, would be to tile the river and get the water down that is up the river. By Lee's place there is a lake of water that would probably last the city over a week or so if it could be gotten down to the pump house. As there is much quicksand in the bed of the river it would be very hard to dig the ditch, and the proposition doesn't look feasible.

Some action should be taken at once by the council, and the sooner the better for the community at large. The city is well able to pay any amount to solve this problem.

Manager Beal Roseberry of the City Water company was present at the meeting Friday evening and said to the board:

"The City Water company don't intend to do anything, for the reason that we have no franchise or contract to do business. We are nearly out of water now and it looks like we are up to the end. We have a little water in the tower, about half full, for fire protection.

"The same condition at Maryville at the present is also what other towns are having. Shenandoah is short of water and their supply will probably have to be shut off part of the day, while at Bedford there is no water at all, as the wells they are using are about dry.

"If the water company had a franchise at the present time of course it would be our business to solve the problem, but since we have no franchise or contract of doing business in Maryville, the company don't intend to spend any more money on this plant until we get one.

"The day before we shut off the water supply there were 313,000 gallons used by our customers. On Thursday morning, when the water was only on from 7 to 9, 50,000 gallons were used."

Manager Roseberry told the members of the council that investors at London, England, owned the stock in the company, and that the Streets, who are running the company, are brokers who represent these people. He said that the actual investment of the plant was $120,000, but that the value of the plant, according to a report made by Burns & McDonald a few years ago, was $76,800.

Manager Roseberry said:

"The company would rather sell out the plant to the city, and to determine a fair valuation on the system at which the city can buy it the city can appoint one appraiser, the company one, and these two a third, and what figure they say the plant is worth the company will take.

"On a franchise, the company will not take any less than 50 cents per 1,000 gallons, and 75 cents minimum. The reason for the increase in rates is that we intend to make improvements on the plant amounting to $40,000 or so. With such rates the company will receive $19,000 a year. This amount will go as follows. Six per cent of the actual investment of the plant, $7,200; deterioration, 1½ per cent on the investment, or $1,200, and about $10,000 for salaries and office expenses, printing, coal, etc.

A permit for a new building was granted to Martin Borrusch on East Second street, east of Bright's livery barn. The building will be used by the Borrusch & Young Silo company.

The board ordered that the Airdome pay a license of $2 for every night they show here, and in case they should refuse to pay for any one night's show the propretors be arrested and fined, according to a city ordinance.

LATE FORAGE CROPS

COWPEAS, SORGHUM AND MILLET HELP TIDE FARMER OVER.

STOCK CAN BE WINTERED

Thrifty Farmers Should Utilize Means at Hand to Avoid Rushing Stock to Market.

The question before our farmers now is, how may I produce enough feed to carry my stock through the winter? To answer that question the following suggestions are made.

Cowpeas sown now and even as late as the last week in July will make considerable growth before the average date of killing frosts. When a shower comes sufficient to loosen up the soil so it may be worked, land where the corn was late and is of no account, the wheat stubble and oat stubble, may be all disked thoroughly and seeded to cowpeas. The New Era peas are best to use for this late seeding and should be drilled in at the rate of one bushel per acre. For a pea of this size, the drill set to sow four pecks of oats per acre will put on about the right amount of seed. Cowpeas germinate very readily and have a tap root which strikes at once into the subsoil, soon becoming firmly as a late forage crop. Land as described above may be also used for sorghum. However, the land should be in a little better shape for this crop to make best returns. The seed may be broadcasted or drilled in. Since the ground is dry, it is preferable to drill it in, in order that it may be covered. Sorghum seeded at the rate of one bushel per acre drilled, or one and a half bushels when broadcasted will give a good stand. Sorghum is rather fine when it starts, but as soon as it has taken hold of the soil, grows rapidly and is very drought resistant. Care should be taken to harvest sorghum before there is any danger of frost, as frosted sorghum is injurious to live stock.

Millet may be used as a late forage crop, and where a stand is secured makes a large amount of hay. The land which will successfully grow millet should be well prepared and the seed bed very fine. The seed is broadcasted with an ordinary grass seeder at the rate of fifty pounds per acre. It should then be harrowed in. Cut for hay at heading time before seed has formed, as millet seed is very injurious to animals.

Various mixtures of these crops may be made to advantage. For instance, instead of sowing cowpeas alone, a mixture of cowpeas and millet may be used, sowing the millet down at the rate of twenty pounds per acre, then drill in the cowpeas at slightly less than one bushel per acre. Where the crops both take off properly, this mixture makes a larger amount of forage than will either one sown alone. Cowpeas and sorghum may be grown in a mixture, using thirty pounds sorghum and one bushel of cowpeas per acre. The best way to seed the mixture is to put both in the drill at the same time and set it to sow four pecks of oats per acre.

Oat straw is good feed, and although the crop of oats is very light this year all the straw should be put in the dry at once. The wheat crop was heavy in most sections of the state, and it may be used for a rough feed in a pinch. Care should be taken to stack and top wheat straw so that it will not damage. Better still, it may be baled and put in the barn where it is out of danger.

In most sections the corn has gotten to considerable height, and even though it does not make a good crop of grain it can all be used for coarse feeding material. Rather than dispose of all cattle and sheep it will be more advisable to cut and shock all the corn instead of pasturing the stalks, as is the common practice.

Mrs. Berky No Better.

Mrs. T. K. Wray went to Pickering Saturday to visit her sister-in-law, Mrs. William Berky, who is dangerously ill.

HOUSE BURNED AT BURLINGTON JUNCTION

Mrs. M. A. Turner received a phone message Saturday forenoon from her mother, Mrs. W. H. Miller of Burlington Junction, stating that their residence at that place was burned to the ground. Mrs. Miller's son took the gasoline stove out in the back yard Saturday morning and was melting pitch tar to put on the roof of the tent. The tank of the stove sprung a leak and at once caught fire to several things in the yard, and the house was soon in flames.

BELLOWS TO ACT AS JUDGE IN STOCK SHOW

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bellows and daughter, Mildred, left Friday for Winnipeg, Canada, where Mr. Bellows is to act as exclusive judge of Shorthorn cattle in the big stock show to be held there next week. This is the biggest stock show of the season.

ELMO.

Dr. and Mrs. Ferguson and Dr. Ferguson's father left for Colorado Wednesday, to be gone about three weeks.

Our elevator is running full blast receiving the golden grain. Threshing is progressing and wheat is averaging twenty-five bushels to the acre and is selling at 75 cents per bushel at the elevator.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Johnston anticipate leaving to visit their daughter at Evanston, Ill., about the 19th.

Mrs. John Anderson and Miss Flora Reece were married last week. It was not generally known for several days. John is rather cute, and here is good luck to you. May you both be happy.

One of our rural mail carriers goes by so fast on his motorcycle no one sees him. Like a humming bird, they can hear the buzz a few seconds.

Elmo is now looking forward to her three days' picnic to be held August 22, 23 and 24.

Miss Ethel Bailey is not attending the Normal this week.

Mrs. Pike of north of town, is no better. She is suffering from lung trouble.

Rev. Swearingen of the M. E. church will begin a revival about July 30th.

Quite a number of wells have gone dry in the Elmo neighborhood and people are getting used to carrying water.

Our electric lights are not turned on very often, because of the inadequacy of the engine. We understand the management has ordered a larger engine.

Automobiles are becoming so numerous in Elmo and community that really a minority of us are less fortunate.

BONDS TO BE ISSUED

COUNCIL TO HAVE MEETING TONIGHT TO DETERMINE QUESTION.

MAY TAKE OLD PLANT

If Reasonable Valuation Can Be Secured—Seems Quickest Permanent Relief.

A special meeting of the city council will be held this, Saturday, evening, when a proposition will probably be submitted to the people to vote bonds for either buying the present water plant or for installing one. Such a proposition it was stated this afternoon would be adopted by the council, as a majority of the members were in favor of it.

An election, it is thought, could be held in fifteen days, and then if it carried a proposition could be made by the city to the water company for the present plant. If the City Water company refused to accept the proposition the city could go ahead and see about installing a plant of its own.

What amount the bond issue would be for is not known, but as the city has a $22,000 bonded indebtedness at present, probably not over a $75,000 issue would be submitted.

The members of the council intend to put the question up to the people, and while the proposition will not offer any temporary relief, it will at least be settled, and probably some relief will be in sight sooner than by not doing anything.

It will take a two-thirds majority of the voters for the proposition to carry. There is a question whether it would carry, as the proposition does not seem definite enough to submit to the people.

IN COMPANY WITH LANDON'S BROTHER

Mr. Will Tate of Robey, Texas, arrived in the city Thursday night and is a guest at the home of his brother, Judge M. G. Tate, and family, where his mother, Mrs. Margaret Tate of Lexington, Mo., is also visiting. Mr. Tate is a member of the same company of which Dr. Truman Landon is a member in the construction of a new railroad in Texas, the Estacado & Gulf road. Dr. Landon is a brother of Director P. O. Landon of the Maryville Conservatory of Music.

Returned from Colorado.

Mrs. Edna Parcher and son, Phillip Parcher, who went to Denver, Col., several months ago to make their home, returned to Maryville Saturday noon and are at the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Parcher. The climate at Denver did not seem to agree with Mrs. Parcher, and they will make Maryville their home in the future.

Dr. J. H. Wells and daughter and son, Miss Luna and Samuel, of Ravenwood were city visitors Saturday. They made the trip in Dr. Wells' car.

ADVERTISING IN JULY PAYS.

July is a month in which newspaper advertisements are eagerly watched for and read very closely. Many people have deferred buying articles of wearing apparel until the present time and they are watching the columns of the newspapers carefully for the merchants' invitation to them to come to their store and inspect their stock and prices. There are many others who purchase nearly all of their summer's clothing and wearing apparel of all kinds during July from the simple fact that they know the modern, live and up-to-date merchant will during this month inaugurate special bargain sales of seasonable merchandise in order to make room for his fall and winter stock. July newspaper advertising is eagerly looked for and carefully read. The merchant who advertises in July reaps a rich reward and gets rid of summer stock at a time when there is a demand for the merchandise. The merchant who advertises in July is not the man who fails to sell his seasonable merchandise and who is compelled to box it up and store it away to be displayed on his shelves and counters next season, when styles have changed and there is little or no demand for the goods he carried over and which he is then forced to dispose of at a trifle. Newspaper readers realize that the live merchant is the one who always has a nice, clean, fresh stock of goods to show customers each season during the year. The value that newspaper advertising is to any merchant depends on the kind of a newspaper he uses as well as the circulation the newspaper has. A newspaper that is read by the most people not only in its home city but in the towns and country surrounding, is the best medium through which to reach the people. The paid circulation that a paper has is what the live merchant buys. He wants to reach the people and he uses the paper that the people read. The live merchant knows that the people read the newspaper they have confidence in and respect for, and they also know that an advertisement in a newspaper of that character is worth more than it is in a newspaper that has scarcely any circulation in surrounding territory. People have confidence in the paper they read and no one understands this better than the really live merchant.

DON'T GET THE DUMPS.

It's pretty tough to stand by and watch a fine corn field grapple with the drouth day after day—and then finally—when the uneven struggle becomes too hard—see it wither and die. The writer knows this because, as a boy on the farm, he has often been a disheartened spectator of this silent tragedy of the fields—and back yonder in those days when the average farm was mortgaged for every dollar it would stand it was a tremendously grave thing—an event which often carried real want and hunger in its seared pathway.

But hard as it is to see the hope and toil of a year come to naught, there is after all so much for the average human being to be thankful for that there is no occasion to give away to fits of despondency. In the first place, the average farmer has been quite prosperous during recent years. He is not goaded by debt as he was fifteen or twenty years ago. Then, too, Dame Nature is wiser and more equitable than the most of us give her credit for being—and the toil she exacts from one harvest she usually gives to the next one, and so we shall be surprised if next year her lap does not run over with all the good things which spring from the bosom of old Mother Earth. Again, by the use of modern methods on the farm we retrieve our losses much more quickly than we used to—and in a little while the apparent calamity passes away so completely that we have to scratch our heads to recall it.

In the meantime, quit thinking about the corn fields. Think about what a glorious privilege it is to live in this wonderful world in which the genius of man overshadows everything—vieing with the eagle's flight among the clouds and coaxing nature to do him menial service by day and by night. Think how fortunate you are to be an American citizen—to live in a country where you are more nearly the arbiter of your own destiny than you could be in any other spot upon the habitable globe—that you are the custodian of a government builded by Washington and Jefferson and Patrick Henry and Benjamin Franklin—that sainted band of men who did more for human liberty than all the statesmen who ever lived! Rejoice that you live in an age where brain and not brawn is the quality that wins in the market place and in the forum—an age more nearly like that for which the lowly Nazarene lived and died than any other the world has ever seen.

And lastly, if your own health is good—if the supper which awaits you when the day's irksome toil is done tastes good—if the cheeks of your loved ones are painted with rose hued, laughter lipped health—then what matters it if perchance one corn crop is destroyed?—Columbia Statesman.

A Misstatement.

Editor Democrat-Forum: In "A Pioneer's Story" I saw a misstatement which I wish to correct. The constable Z. M. P. Spaulding was my grandfather, and his name was Zebulon Montgomery Pike, instead of Zederick, as stated in "A Pioneer's Story." He only had one Newfoundland dog instead of five. This dog (Dash) did hot stay in the office with him, but on the farm with my father. I make this correction for I do not want a wrong impression to go forth. XXX

SENATE AGREES TO BALLOT

Vote Will Be Taken on Reciprocity Bill July 22.

WOOL BILL COMES JULY 27.

Three Other Measures to Be Voted On Early in August and Congress Probably Will Adjourn on the Seventh. Debate Practically Over.

Washington, July 15.—An agreement to vote on the Canadian reciprocity bill on July 22 was adopted in the senate without opposition. Agreements were also made for votes on other measures, which will carry the session through the legislative day of Aug. 7, immediately after which congress will adjourn. The agreement calls for votes as follows:

July 22—Canadian reciprocity.
July 27—Wool revision bill.
Aug. 1—Free list bill.
Aug. 3—Congressional reapportionment bill.
Aug. 7—Arizona-New Mexico statehood bill.

All the bills included in the agreement already have passed the house. If amendments are made to them they will be still subject to quick conference between the representatives of the two houses.

The "legislative day" for statehood would permit a "recess" from day to day if found necessary. Such a contingency is not regarded as probable.

La Follette Takes Lead.

The original suggestion for an agreement was made by Senator La Follette, Republican insurgent, who was willing to fix an earlier date than that named for the vote on reciprocity. The demand for a later date was made by others, who desire to speak on the bill. Many obstacles to fixing the dates were encountered.

Senator Borah insisted on a date for consideration of a conference report on the joint resolution for the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people, and the vote on statehood was fixed for the "legislative day" of Aug. 7 instead of the calendar day of that date in order to protect the popular election bill.

As soon as the agreement was reached and reported to the senate the acquiescence of the regular Democrats was expressed by Senator Martin.

Senator La Follette agreed that all interests in the senate had been consulted and that it had been deemed wise to agree upon dates when all of the important bills now pending could be disposed of.

Reciprocity Debate Practically Over.

The reciprocity debate will be quickly terminated and other bills taken up for discussion.

Senator Martin said the Democrats would endeavor to secure consideration of the contributions bill before congress adjourns. Senator Kenyon asked particularly as to this bill.

Senator Penrose said it had been impossible to get an agreement on more bills than those named, but that the senate would be free to take up the publicity bill if it so desired.

The agreement to vote is so drawn that amendments may be voted on at any time. Senator Bristow called attention to the fact that this would prevent senators from leaving Washington until the day of the votes.

"If they do, they may find their bills amended when they get back," he said.

MUST LOOK TO ARGENTINE

American Packers Will Have to Go South for Raw Material.

New York, July 15.—American beef packers must go to Argentine for their product, said J. Ogden Armour, if they wish to retain their hold on the exportation of beef. Mr. Armour arrived from Europe.

The United States can no longer afford to export beef, he said, for it is all needed to supply the home demand. This has been the condition for some time, and it is more forcibly put to the American packer every day.

"There is a great demand in Germany and England for American packed meats, and Argentine offers the simplest solution."

TWO MORE FOR RAILWAY JOB

Earl O. Eager and G. E. Upton File for Commissionership.

Lincoln, July 15.—The race for state railway commissioner to fill a vacancy has been considerably enlivened through the filing of Earl O. Eager of this city on the Republican ticket and G. E. Upton of Union on the Democratic ticket. The former was in the lower house at the late session of the state legislature. He is at present graduate manager of athletics at the state university. Upton is one of the leading business men of Union and has been a hard Democratic worker for several years.

McNamara Trial Set for Oct. 10.

Los Angeles, July 15.—Judge Bordwell set the trial of the McNamara brothers for Oct. 10. The McNamaras will be tried on the first of the nineteen murder indictments found as a result of the Times explosion. The defense wanted the case delayed until December, while the prosecution insisted upon a trial not later than Aug. 1. The decision was a compromise.

CONGRESS PROBE FOR WICKERSHAM

Alaskan Delegate Files Charges Against Attorney General.

Washington, July 15.—After secret consideration of charges made by Delegate Wickersham of Alaska against Attorney General Wickersham, the house committe on judiciary has determined to report favorably a resolution of inquiry offered by Delegate Wickersham. The following is a summary of the charges:

That Attorney General Wickersham permitted the statute of limitations to run against agents of the Alaska syndicate until they could not be prosecuted for defrauding the government.

That he (Delegate Wickersham) requested the attorney general to take action against these men a year before that statute had expired, submitting the evidence on which his charges were based.

That the government has been defrauded of $50,000 by perjury and a combination of the Northwestern Commercial company and the Sesnor Coal company in the sale of coal for military posts.

That agents of the Alaska syndicate spent over a thousand dollars to control government witnesses in the Hazey murder trial in 1908.

That "the Alaska syndicate is an organized crime."

A copy of an affidavit relating to an alleged criminal act committed by an agent of the Alaska syndicate, who later committed suicide.

A photographic expense account for $1,123.40 of an agent of the syndicate who had entertained government witnesses and jurymen.

Correspondence with the attorney general, asking him to proceed against the agents of the syndicate, including his statement that the statute of limitations had expired.

NOT A REASONABLE TRUST

Creamery Package Combine Declared in Restraint of Trade.

St. Paul, July 15.—The effort made by the Creamery Package company, a Chicago corporation, with subsidiary concerns in Minnesota, to set itself up as a "reasonable" trust, within the meaning of the recent decisions of the federal supreme court in the Standard Oil and tobacco combine cases came to naught when the state supreme court handed down a decision in which the Creamery Package company is declared to be a combination in restraint of trade. Its license to do business in Minnesota was revoked. The case will be appealed to the United States supreme court.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR.

It is announced in the Globe-Democrat that Al Speer of Osage county will become a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, "if there is a sufficient demand for him." The demand in such cases is recorded by a barometer in the office of Governor Hadley. But John McKinley of Putnam county is going to run for governor, without regard to the laws of supply and demand and without reference to barometric pressure. John Swanger, also, has been struggling with the importunities of his constituents, and is only awaitting the Jovian nod of his chief.

The German Republicans have a favorite in Lieutenant Governor Gmelich. But they are not considered. Their business, in the view of the Republican bosses, is simply to elect the Republican ticket. The politicians whose word is law in the realm of Missouri Republicanism are quite willing that the Germans shall elect their ticket, but an ambitious German Republican must content himself with a minor elective office or with an occasional crumb from the governor's table. The executive council at Jefferson City will never agree upon Gmelich or any of his race.

Just now, it is said, the Hadley choice is Kennish. Should the Democratic election contests succeed, Judge Kennish will run as a "martyr" candidate. If they do not succeed he will be pushed forward anyway, and his martyrdom will be deferred until the general election in 1912.

But the "frank" of the country postoffice will not be placed upon any favorite of Governor Hadley. The postmasters are for McKinley because Hadley is said to be against him, and because his name suggests that of the "martyred president," although he does not look the part. If Hadley is to defeat McKinley for that nomination he will have to find a man who looks like Taft.—St. Louis Republic.

TRADE REVIEW FOR THE WEEK

High Temperatures Affect Business Adversely.

DEMAND REOPENS STEEL MILLS

Movement of Footwear Gradually Increases, With Buyers More Numerous in New England Market—As Viewed by Bradstreet's.

New York, July 15.—Dun's Weekly Review of Trade says: Prevalence of high temperatures throughout the country has adversely affected business, notably in retail lines. In response to the broader demand for finished materials, the steel mills are rapidly resuming operations, having taken less time than usual for repairs and inventories.

Movement of footwear gradually increases. Buyers are more numerous in the New England market, but caution continues to be displayed in all transactions. Retail trade, however, continues to show improvement. Pronounced strength still rules throughout the leather market, with special firmness in sole leather. Trade is not active and business is reduced by the slowing down of shoe factories and by excessive heat. Except for a slight weakness in England, all European markets are strong.

Bradstreet's Review of Trade.

Bradstreet's says: The events of the week have been mainly favorable, due to the passing, in the main at least, of the heat wave, the worst for a decade; the occurrence of rain in drought stricken sections staying the further deterioration of the corn crop; the maintenance of flattering conditions as to the cotton crop outlook and the widening of activity in the iron and steel trade. Though midsummer quiet still prevails, trade conditions display a slightly better undertone. Withal, buyers are conservative about placing orders for future business and comparatively few salesmen are on the road. In fact, most interests seem to realize that trade will not improve much until near the fall season, when prospects as to crop yields will be more freely developed.

Wheat exports for the week aggregate 1,801,083 bushels. Corn exports for the week are 898,391 bushels.

Failures for the week were 196.

MUST ABROGATE RULE

Kansas City Live Stock Exchange Must Lift Boycott on Independents.

Kansas City, July 15.—An order restraining the members of the Traders' Live Stock exchange at the Kansas City stock yards from boycotting independent operators or doing anything that would be in restraint of trade was made by Judge Thomas in the circuit court here. The order followed charges that "flagrant acts in restraint of trade" by members of the exchange had tended to "destroy the open market."

The members of the exchange are by the order given until Sept. 9 to abrogate rule 10, which provides that any member of the exchange who sells or buys cattle from an independent operator shall be subject to expulsion.

DENEEN TELLS OF ILLINOIS FIGHTS

Governor Gives Rating of Political Leaders.

CLASH OVER SUM IN ADDITION

Hanecy Attempts to Show Witness Organized Legislature During His Term as Governor—Says Figures Are Correct, but Conclusions Wrong.

Washington, July 15.—For nearly six hours Governor Deneen of Illinois underwent cross-examination by counsel for Senator Lorimer concerning the testimony the governor gave to the senate committee investigating the election of Senator Lorimer.

Nearly every phase of Illinois politics was entered into by Attorney Elbridge Hanecy in cross-examining the witness. The testimony constitutes a history of political alignments in Illinois from the time Mr. Deneen was first elected state's attorney for Cook county.

Mr. Hanecy sought to show that it was Deneen who organized the legislature during his term as governor and not Lorimer, but Mr. Deneen was certain that he did not dictate the chairmen of committees and that Lorimer had attended a conference "somewhere" wherein it was agreed to have the minority Republicans and Democrats organize the house which voted for Lorimer.

Mr. Hanecy sought to show that if fifteen Deneen men had voted for Hopkins on the first day's balloting for senator Hopkins would have been elected. Mr. Deneen was not willing to say that all these fifteen were full fledged Deneen men.

"Hopkins received sixty-one votes in the house," said Mr. Hanecy, "and these fifteen more would make seventy-six, and that would have been enough to have elected him, wouldn't it, for you say he had a majority in the senate?"

"Well, sixty-one and fifteen make seventy-six," responded Mr. Deneen. "That far you are correct. Your addition is correct, but your conclusion is wrong. He would have been elected had the sixty-one not changed their votes, but they would have changed."

Mr. Hanecy led Governor Deneen by a long series of questions to give a rating to the political standing of most of the Republican leaders of Chicago for several years past. At one point Governor Deneen said Lorimer supported him for state's attorney, but declined to give the senator all the credit for his nomination, either for the first or second term.

COMMITTEE PROBES CHARGES

House Wants to Know Who Wants Dr. Wiley Ousted and Why.

Washington, July 15.—The charges made against Dr. Harvey W. Wiley of the bureau of chemistry were taken up by the house committee on expenditures in the department of agriculture.

It was declared that the committee wanted to know "who wanted Dr. Wiley fired, and why," the recommendation that pure foods experts be dismissed, and the reasons therefor, it is said, will be thoroughly gone into.

The committee decided to call at once upon Secretary of Agriculture Wilson for a copy of all the charges, testimony and other papers in the case, and to begin the investigation immediately upon their receipt. Secretary Wilson, Solicitor McCabe and members of the personnel board which recommended Wiley's removal probably be called first.

Letters and telegrams expressing confidence in Dr. Wiley and urging President Taft to consider carefully the charges made against him by the personnel board of the department and indorsed by Attorney General Wickersham, came pouring into the White House from all over the country.

Many of the messages were from commercial organizations, others from personal friends of the president and of Dr. Wiley.

Secretary James Wilson said that he did not know how soon the doctor's answer to the charges against him might be expected. Secretary Wilson also said that he personally had had little to do with the Wiley case. He said, however, that the personnel board, which recommended his resignation, was a permanent board, such as exists in most governmental departments; that it had not acted hurriedly and that its conclusions had been reached after hearings.

GOFORTH FAMILY SAW TWO FINE RAINS

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Goforth and children returned Thursday night from Palestine, Ill., where they spent a delightful week with Mrs. Goforth's parents, Rev. and Mrs. D. W. Conner. Palestine is only three miles from the Indiana line. The crops look fine and pastures are green and luxuriant in that section, which has not been without rain longer than a period of two weeks since early spring. They saw two good rains in the week they were there, and to hear them tell how the rain looked as it fell and pattered on the roof and on the window pane; how the air was sweetened and freshened by the fragrance from flowers and foliage wet with the rain; and how it blew in their faces, and how Doris Marie and Donald Kieth ran out and played in it and got all soaking wet, why, it's enough to set you crazy. O let's all pray for rain! They visited in St. Louis with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnson on their return trip.

Went to Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Russell and son Master Frank, living a short distance east of Hopkins, were in Maryville a short time Friday evening on their way to Omaha for a few days' visit with Mrs. Russell's sister-in-law, Mrs. J. N. Strawn.

RESTORE GRAY HAIR TO NATURAL COLOR

By Common Garden Sage, a Simple Remedy for Dandruff, Falling, Faded, Gray Hair.

The old idea of using sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers used to have dark, glossy hair at the age of seventy-five, while our mothers have white hair before they are fifty. Our grandmothers used to make a "sage tea" and apply it to their hair. The tea made their hair soft and glossy, and gradually restored the natural color.

One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it, especially as it had to be made every two or three days, on account of souring quickly. This objection has been overcome, and by asking almost any first-class druggist for Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy the public can get a superior preparation of sage, with the admixture of sulphur, another valuable remedy for hair and scalp troubles. Daily use of this preparation will not only quickly restore the color of the hair, but will also stop the hair from falling out and make it grow.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special Agent, Koch Pharmacy.

Idle Capital is an Extravagance

no community can afford; to do anyone a benefit it must be kept moving and to do the most good it should seek legitimate channels. Then let us divorce ourselves from the prevailing "get rich quick" fever and get back to the good ways of our forefathers. Put your money into something at home, where it will HELP YOUR HOME TOWN and enhance the other interests you may have. Why not build a home? There's no satisfaction like that borne of the knowledge you own a home, Start it today and tomorrow you'll awaken with a feeling of independence like that of 1776. Of course you'll need lumber, but we can quickly help you out, as our stock is complete and most orders can be filled the day we get them.

DAILY DEMOCRAT-FORUM

VOLUME 2. MARYVILLE, MISSOURI, SATURDAY, JULY 15, 1911. NO. 36.

COUNCIL MUST ACT

COMPANY TO DO NOTHING

Local Manager Informed the Council Friday that the Company Would Spend No Money.

Another meeting of the city council was held Friday evening, but nothing was done on the water situation, except that the board decided that they would go to the river Saturday and look over the conditions there.

The members of the city council should have informed themselves fully on this matter before this time, as this is the biggest problem Maryville has ever had on hand, pertaining to the health and welfare of the community. The time for investigation is past; the time for immediate action is here if the interests of Maryville and her people are to be properly protected.

Since the City Water company refuses to turn a hand to relieve the situation, unless they can see a franchise in sight, it is up to the members of the council to solve the problem for the time being. There is not much promise right now of any big rains, or enough to improve the situation at the river for probably two months. A heavy rain is necessary to make any improvement. This being the case, what should be done to relieve the situation for the present? One way which is feasible and would perhaps be the best would be to dig wells on the 102 river.

While the expense of getting the machinery here to dig the well would probably be very great, wouldn't it be worth it to the city when the health and welfare of the community is at stake? Should the council at the present time be afraid of spending any amount of money when we have confronting us such a serious matter that will probably continue for another month or so and would endanger the lives of our people?

Another way to improve the situation, some think, would be to tile the river and get the water down that is up the river. By Lee's place there is a lake of water that would probably last the city over a week or so if it could be gotten down to the pump house. As there is much quicksand in the bed of the river it would be very hard to dig the ditch, and the proposition doesn't look feasible.

Some action should be taken at once by the council, and the sooner the better for the community at large. The city is well able to pay any amount to solve this problem.

Manager Beal Roseberry of the City Water company was present at the meeting Friday evening and said to the board:

"The City Water company don't intend to do anything, for the reason that we have no franchise or contract to do business. We are nearly out of water now and it looks like we are up to the end. We have a little water in the tower, about half full, for fire protection.

"The same condition at Maryville at the present is also what other towns are having. Shenandoah is short of water and their supply will probably have to be shut off part of the day, while at Bedford there is no water at all, as the wells they are using are about dry.

"If the water company had a franchise at the present time of course it would be our business to solve the problem, but since we have no franchise or contract of doing business in Maryville, the company don't intend to spend any more money on this plant until we get one.

"The day before we shut off the water supply there were 313,000 gallons used by our customers. On Thursday morning, when the water was only on from 7 to 9, 50,000 gallons were used."

Manager Roseberry told the members of the council that investors at London, England, owned the stock in the company, and that the Streets, who are running the company, are brokers who represent these people. He said that the actual investment of the plant was $120,000, but that the value of the plant, according to a report made by Burns & McDonald a few years ago, was $76,800.

Manager Roseberry said:

"The company would rather sell out the plant to the city, and to determine a fair valuation on the system at which the city can buy it the city can appoint one appraiser, the company one, and these two a third, and what figure they say the plant is worth the company will take.

"On a franchise, the company will not take any less than 50 cents per 1,000 gallons, and 75 cents minimum. The reason for the increase in rates is that we intend to make improvements on the plant amounting to $40,000 or so. With such rates the company will receive $19,000 a year. This amount will go as follows. Six per cent of the actual investment of the plant, $7,200; deterioration, 1½ per cent on the investment, or $1,200, and about $10,000 for salaries and office expenses, printing, coal, etc.

A permit for a new building was granted to Martin Borrusch on East Second street, east of Bright's livery barn. The building will be used by the Borrusch & Young Silo company.

The board ordered that the Airdome pay a license of $2 for every night they show here, and in case they should refuse to pay for any one night's show the propretors be arrested and fined, according to a city ordinance.

LATE FORAGE CROPS

COWPEAS, SORGHUM AND MILLET HELP TIDE FARMER OVER.

STOCK CAN BE WINTERED

Thrifty Farmers Should Utilize Means at Hand to Avoid Rushing Stock to Market.

The question before our farmers now is, how may I produce enough feed to carry my stock through the winter? To answer that question the following suggestions are made.

Cowpeas sown now and even as late as the last week in July will make considerable growth before the average date of killing frosts. When a shower comes sufficient to loosen up the soil so it may be worked, land where the corn was late and is of no account, the wheat stubble and oat stubble, may be all disked thoroughly and seeded to cowpeas. The New Era peas are best to use for this late seeding and should be drilled in at the rate of one bushel per acre. For a pea of this size, the drill set to sow four pecks of oats per acre will put on about the right amount of seed. Cowpeas germinate very readily and have a tap root which strikes at once into the subsoil, soon becoming firmly as a late forage crop. Land as described above may be also used for sorghum. However, the land should be in a little better shape for this crop to make best returns. The seed may be broadcasted or drilled in. Since the ground is dry, it is preferable to drill it in, in order that it may be covered. Sorghum seeded at the rate of one bushel per acre drilled, or one and a half bushels when broadcasted will give a good stand. Sorghum is rather fine when it starts, but as soon as it has taken hold of the soil, grows rapidly and is very drought resistant. Care should be taken to harvest sorghum before there is any danger of frost, as frosted sorghum is injurious to live stock.

Millet may be used as a late forage crop, and where a stand is secured makes a large amount of hay. The land which will successfully grow millet should be well prepared and the seed bed very fine. The seed is broadcasted with an ordinary grass seeder at the rate of fifty pounds per acre. It should then be harrowed in. Cut for hay at heading time before seed has formed, as millet seed is very injurious to animals.

Various mixtures of these crops may be made to advantage. For instance, instead of sowing cowpeas alone, a mixture of cowpeas and millet may be used, sowing the millet down at the rate of twenty pounds per acre, then drill in the cowpeas at slightly less than one bushel per acre. Where the crops both take off properly, this mixture makes a larger amount of forage than will either one sown alone. Cowpeas and sorghum may be grown in a mixture, using thirty pounds sorghum and one bushel of cowpeas per acre. The best way to seed the mixture is to put both in the drill at the same time and set it to sow four pecks of oats per acre.

Oat straw is good feed, and although the crop of oats is very light this year all the straw should be put in the dry at once. The wheat crop was heavy in most sections of the state, and it may be used for a rough feed in a pinch. Care should be taken to stack and top wheat straw so that it will not damage. Better still, it may be baled and put in the barn where it is out of danger.

In most sections the corn has gotten to considerable height, and even though it does not make a good crop of grain it can all be used for coarse feeding material. Rather than dispose of all cattle and sheep it will be more advisable to cut and shock all the corn instead of pasturing the stalks, as is the common practice.

Mrs. Berky No Better.

Mrs. T. K. Wray went to Pickering Saturday to visit her sister-in-law, Mrs. William Berky, who is dangerously ill.

HOUSE BURNED AT BURLINGTON JUNCTION

Mrs. M. A. Turner received a phone message Saturday forenoon from her mother, Mrs. W. H. Miller of Burlington Junction, stating that their residence at that place was burned to the ground. Mrs. Miller's son took the gasoline stove out in the back yard Saturday morning and was melting pitch tar to put on the roof of the tent. The tank of the stove sprung a leak and at once caught fire to several things in the yard, and the house was soon in flames.

BELLOWS TO ACT AS JUDGE IN STOCK SHOW

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bellows and daughter, Mildred, left Friday for Winnipeg, Canada, where Mr. Bellows is to act as exclusive judge of Shorthorn cattle in the big stock show to be held there next week. This is the biggest stock show of the season.

ELMO.

Dr. and Mrs. Ferguson and Dr. Ferguson's father left for Colorado Wednesday, to be gone about three weeks.

Our elevator is running full blast receiving the golden grain. Threshing is progressing and wheat is averaging twenty-five bushels to the acre and is selling at 75 cents per bushel at the elevator.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Johnston anticipate leaving to visit their daughter at Evanston, Ill., about the 19th.

Mrs. John Anderson and Miss Flora Reece were married last week. It was not generally known for several days. John is rather cute, and here is good luck to you. May you both be happy.

One of our rural mail carriers goes by so fast on his motorcycle no one sees him. Like a humming bird, they can hear the buzz a few seconds.

Elmo is now looking forward to her three days' picnic to be held August 22, 23 and 24.

Miss Ethel Bailey is not attending the Normal this week.

Mrs. Pike of north of town, is no better. She is suffering from lung trouble.

Rev. Swearingen of the M. E. church will begin a revival about July 30th.

Quite a number of wells have gone dry in the Elmo neighborhood and people are getting used to carrying water.

Our electric lights are not turned on very often, because of the inadequacy of the engine. We understand the management has ordered a larger engine.

Automobiles are becoming so numerous in Elmo and community that really a minority of us are less fortunate.

BONDS TO BE ISSUED

MAY TAKE OLD PLANT

If Reasonable Valuation Can Be Secured—Seems Quickest Permanent Relief.

A special meeting of the city council will be held this, Saturday, evening, when a proposition will probably be submitted to the people to vote bonds for either buying the present water plant or for installing one. Such a proposition it was stated this afternoon would be adopted by the council, as a majority of the members were in favor of it.

An election, it is thought, could be held in fifteen days, and then if it carried a proposition could be made by the city to the water company for the present plant. If the City Water company refused to accept the proposition the city could go ahead and see about installing a plant of its own.

What amount the bond issue would be for is not known, but as the city has a $22,000 bonded indebtedness at present, probably not over a $75,000 issue would be submitted.

The members of the council intend to put the question up to the people, and while the proposition will not offer any temporary relief, it will at least be settled, and probably some relief will be in sight sooner than by not doing anything.

It will take a two-thirds majority of the voters for the proposition to carry. There is a question whether it would carry, as the proposition does not seem definite enough to submit to the people.

IN COMPANY WITH LANDON'S BROTHER

Mr. Will Tate of Robey, Texas, arrived in the city Thursday night and is a guest at the home of his brother, Judge M. G. Tate, and family, where his mother, Mrs. Margaret Tate of Lexington, Mo., is also visiting. Mr. Tate is a member of the same company of which Dr. Truman Landon is a member in the construction of a new railroad in Texas, the Estacado & Gulf road. Dr. Landon is a brother of Director P. O. Landon of the Maryville Conservatory of Music.

Returned from Colorado.

Mrs. Edna Parcher and son, Phillip Parcher, who went to Denver, Col., several months ago to make their home, returned to Maryville Saturday noon and are at the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Parcher. The climate at Denver did not seem to agree with Mrs. Parcher, and they will make Maryville their home in the future.

Dr. J. H. Wells and daughter and son, Miss Luna and Samuel, of Ravenwood were city visitors Saturday. They made the trip in Dr. Wells' car.

ADVERTISING IN JULY PAYS.

July is a month in which newspaper advertisements are eagerly watched for and read very closely. Many people have deferred buying articles of wearing apparel until the present time and they are watching the columns of the newspapers carefully for the merchants' invitation to them to come to their store and inspect their stock and prices. There are many others who purchase nearly all of their summer's clothing and wearing apparel of all kinds during July from the simple fact that they know the modern, live and up-to-date merchant will during this month inaugurate special bargain sales of seasonable merchandise in order to make room for his fall and winter stock. July newspaper advertising is eagerly looked for and carefully read. The merchant who advertises in July reaps a rich reward and gets rid of summer stock at a time when there is a demand for the merchandise. The merchant who advertises in July is not the man who fails to sell his seasonable merchandise and who is compelled to box it up and store it away to be displayed on his shelves and counters next season, when styles have changed and there is little or no demand for the goods he carried over and which he is then forced to dispose of at a trifle. Newspaper readers realize that the live merchant is the one who always has a nice, clean, fresh stock of goods to show customers each season during the year. The value that newspaper advertising is to any merchant depends on the kind of a newspaper he uses as well as the circulation the newspaper has. A newspaper that is read by the most people not only in its home city but in the towns and country surrounding, is the best medium through which to reach the people. The paid circulation that a paper has is what the live merchant buys. He wants to reach the people and he uses the paper that the people read. The live merchant knows that the people read the newspaper they have confidence in and respect for, and they also know that an advertisement in a newspaper of that character is worth more than it is in a newspaper that has scarcely any circulation in surrounding territory. People have confidence in the paper they read and no one understands this better than the really live merchant.

DON'T GET THE DUMPS.

It's pretty tough to stand by and watch a fine corn field grapple with the drouth day after day—and then finally—when the uneven struggle becomes too hard—see it wither and die. The writer knows this because, as a boy on the farm, he has often been a disheartened spectator of this silent tragedy of the fields—and back yonder in those days when the average farm was mortgaged for every dollar it would stand it was a tremendously grave thing—an event which often carried real want and hunger in its seared pathway.

But hard as it is to see the hope and toil of a year come to naught, there is after all so much for the average human being to be thankful for that there is no occasion to give away to fits of despondency. In the first place, the average farmer has been quite prosperous during recent years. He is not goaded by debt as he was fifteen or twenty years ago. Then, too, Dame Nature is wiser and more equitable than the most of us give her credit for being—and the toil she exacts from one harvest she usually gives to the next one, and so we shall be surprised if next year her lap does not run over with all the good things which spring from the bosom of old Mother Earth. Again, by the use of modern methods on the farm we retrieve our losses much more quickly than we used to—and in a little while the apparent calamity passes away so completely that we have to scratch our heads to recall it.

In the meantime, quit thinking about the corn fields. Think about what a glorious privilege it is to live in this wonderful world in which the genius of man overshadows everything—vieing with the eagle's flight among the clouds and coaxing nature to do him menial service by day and by night. Think how fortunate you are to be an American citizen—to live in a country where you are more nearly the arbiter of your own destiny than you could be in any other spot upon the habitable globe—that you are the custodian of a government builded by Washington and Jefferson and Patrick Henry and Benjamin Franklin—that sainted band of men who did more for human liberty than all the statesmen who ever lived! Rejoice that you live in an age where brain and not brawn is the quality that wins in the market place and in the forum—an age more nearly like that for which the lowly Nazarene lived and died than any other the world has ever seen.

And lastly, if your own health is good—if the supper which awaits you when the day's irksome toil is done tastes good—if the cheeks of your loved ones are painted with rose hued, laughter lipped health—then what matters it if perchance one corn crop is destroyed?—Columbia Statesman.

Ptomaine Poisoning.

The child was not taken ill until Friday afternoon. Dr. Vilas Martin was summoned and it took strenuous work on his part to save the little boy's life. He is some better Saturday.

A Misstatement.

Editor Democrat-Forum: In "A Pioneer's Story" I saw a misstatement which I wish to correct. The constable Z. M. P. Spaulding was my grandfather, and his name was Zebulon Montgomery Pike, instead of Zederick, as stated in "A Pioneer's Story." He only had one Newfoundland dog instead of five. This dog (Dash) did hot stay in the office with him, but on the farm with my father. I make this correction for I do not want a wrong impression to go forth. XXX

SENATE AGREES TO BALLOT

Vote Will Be Taken on Reciprocity Bill July 22.

WOOL BILL COMES JULY 27.

Three Other Measures to Be Voted On Early in August and Congress Probably Will Adjourn on the Seventh. Debate Practically Over.

Washington, July 15.—An agreement to vote on the Canadian reciprocity bill on July 22 was adopted in the senate without opposition. Agreements were also made for votes on other measures, which will carry the session through the legislative day of Aug. 7, immediately after which congress will adjourn. The agreement calls for votes as follows:

July 22—Canadian reciprocity.
July 27—Wool revision bill.
Aug. 1—Free list bill.
Aug. 3—Congressional reapportionment bill.
Aug. 7—Arizona-New Mexico statehood bill.

All the bills included in the agreement already have passed the house. If amendments are made to them they will be still subject to quick conference between the representatives of the two houses.

The "legislative day" for statehood would permit a "recess" from day to day if found necessary. Such a contingency is not regarded as probable.

La Follette Takes Lead.

The original suggestion for an agreement was made by Senator La Follette, Republican insurgent, who was willing to fix an earlier date than that named for the vote on reciprocity. The demand for a later date was made by others, who desire to speak on the bill. Many obstacles to fixing the dates were encountered.

Senator Borah insisted on a date for consideration of a conference report on the joint resolution for the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people, and the vote on statehood was fixed for the "legislative day" of Aug. 7 instead of the calendar day of that date in order to protect the popular election bill.

As soon as the agreement was reached and reported to the senate the acquiescence of the regular Democrats was expressed by Senator Martin.

Senator La Follette agreed that all interests in the senate had been consulted and that it had been deemed wise to agree upon dates when all of the important bills now pending could be disposed of.

Reciprocity Debate Practically Over.

The reciprocity debate will be quickly terminated and other bills taken up for discussion.

Senator Martin said the Democrats would endeavor to secure consideration of the contributions bill before congress adjourns. Senator Kenyon asked particularly as to this bill.

Senator Penrose said it had been impossible to get an agreement on more bills than those named, but that the senate would be free to take up the publicity bill if it so desired.

The agreement to vote is so drawn that amendments may be voted on at any time. Senator Bristow called attention to the fact that this would prevent senators from leaving Washington until the day of the votes.

"If they do, they may find their bills amended when they get back," he said.

MUST LOOK TO ARGENTINE

American Packers Will Have to Go South for Raw Material.

New York, July 15.—American beef packers must go to Argentine for their product, said J. Ogden Armour, if they wish to retain their hold on the exportation of beef. Mr. Armour arrived from Europe.

The United States can no longer afford to export beef, he said, for it is all needed to supply the home demand. This has been the condition for some time, and it is more forcibly put to the American packer every day.

"There is a great demand in Germany and England for American packed meats, and Argentine offers the simplest solution."

Lincoln, July 15.—The race for state railway commissioner to fill a vacancy has been considerably enlivened through the filing of Earl O. Eager of this city on the Republican ticket and G. E. Upton of Union on the Democratic ticket. The former was in the lower house at the late session of the state legislature. He is at present graduate manager of athletics at the state university. Upton is one of the leading business men of Union and has been a hard Democratic worker for several years.

Los Angeles, July 15.—Judge Bordwell set the trial of the McNamara brothers for Oct. 10. Alaskan Delegate Files Charges Against Attorney General.

Washington, July 15.—After secret consideration of charges made by Delegate Wickersham of Alaska against Attorney General Wickersham, the house committe on judiciary has determined to report favorably a resolution of inquiry offered by Delegate Wickersham. The following is a summary of the charges:

That Attorney General Wickersham permitted the statute of limitations to run against agents of the Alaska syndicate until they could not be prosecuted for defrauding the government.

That he (Delegate Wickersham) requested the attorney general to take action against these men a year before that statute had expired, submitting the evidence on which his charges were based.

That the government has been defrauded of $50,000 by perjury and a combination of the Northwestern Commercial company and the Sesnor Coal company in the sale of coal for military posts.

That agents of the Alaska syndicate spent over a thousand dollars to control government witnesses in the Hazey murder trial in 1908.

That "the Alaska syndicate is an organized crime."

A copy of an affidavit relating to an alleged criminal act committed by an agent of the Alaska syndicate, who later committed suicide.

A photographic expense account for $1,133.40 of an agent of the syndicate who had entertained government witnesses and jurymen.

Correspondence with the attorney general, asking him to proceed against the agents of the syndicate, including his statement that the statute of limitations had expired.

NOT A REASONABLE TRUST

Creamery Package Combine Declared in Restraint of Trade.

St. Paul, July 15.—The effort made by the Creamery Package company, a Chicago corporation, with subsidiary concerns in Minnesota, to set itself up as a "reasonable" trust, within the meaning of the recent decisions of the federal supreme court in the Standard Oil and tobacco combine cases came to naught when the state supreme court handed down a decision in which the Creamery Package company is declared to be a combination in restraint of trade. Its license to do business in Minnesota was revoked. The case will be appealed to the United States supreme court.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR.

It is announced in the Globe-Democrat that Al Speer of Osage county will become a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, "if there is a sufficient demand for him." The demand in such cases is recorded by a barometer in the office of Governor Hadley. But John McKinley of Putnam county is going to run for governor, without regard to the laws of supply and demand and without reference to barometric pressure. John Swanger, also, has been struggling with the importunities of his constituents, and is only awaitting the Jovian nod of his chief.

The German Republicans have a favorite in Lieutenant Governor Gmelich. But they are not considered. Their business, in the view of the Republican bosses, is simply to elect the Republican ticket. The politicians whose word is law in the realm of Missouri Republicanism are quite willing that the Germans shall elect their ticket, but an ambitious German Republican must content himself with a minor elective office or with an occasional crumb from the governor's table. The executive council at Jefferson City will never agree upon Gmelich or any of his race.

Just now, it is said, the Hadley choice is Kennish. Should the Democratic election contests succeed, Judge Kennish will run as a "martyr" candidate. If they do not succeed he will be pushed forward anyway, and his martyrdom will be deferred until the general election in 1912.

But the "frank" of the country postoffice will not be placed upon any favorite of Governor Hadley. The postmasters are for McKinley because Hadley is said to be against him, and because his name suggests that of the "martyred president," although he does not look the part. If Hadley is to defeat McKinley for that nomination he will have to find a man who looks like Taft.—St. Louis Republic.

High Temperatures Affect Business Adversely.

DEMAND REOPENS STEEL MILLS

Movement of Footwear Gradually Increases, With Buyers More Numerous in New England Market—As Viewed by Bradstreet's.

New York, July 15.—Dun's Weekly Review of Trade says: Prevalence of high temperatures throughout the country has adversely affected business, notably in retail lines. In response to the broader demand for finished materials, the steel mills are rapidly resuming operations, having taken less time than usual for repairs and inventories.

Movement of footwear gradually increases. Buyers are more numerous in the New England market, but caution continues to be displayed in all transactions. Retail trade, however, continues to show improvement. Pronounced strength still rules throughout the leather market, with special firmness in sole leather. Trade is not active and business is reduced by the slowing down of shoe factories and by excessive heat. Except for a slight weakness in England, all European markets are strong.

Bradstreet's Review of Trade.

Bradstreet's says: The events of the week have been mainly favorable, due to the passing, in the main at least, of the heat wave, the worst for a decade; the occurrence of rain in drought stricken sections staying the further deterioration of the corn crop; the maintenance of flattering conditions as to the cotton crop outlook and the widening of activity in the iron and steel trade. Though midsummer quiet still prevails, trade conditions display a slightly better undertone. Withal, buyers are conservative about placing orders for future business and comparatively few salesmen are on the road. In fact, most interests seem to realize that trade will not improve much until near the fall season, when prospects as to crop yields will be more freely developed.

Wheat exports for the week aggregate 1,801,083 bushels. Corn exports for the week are 898,391 bushels.

Failures for the week were 196.

Kansas City Live Stock Exchange Must Lift Boycott on Independents.

Kansas City, July 15.—An order restraining the members of the Traders' Live Stock exchange at the Kansas City stock yards from boycotting independent operators or doing anything that would be in restraint of trade was made by Judge Thomas in the circuit court here. The order followed charges that "flagrant acts in restraint of trade" by members of the exchange had tended to "destroy the open market."

The members of the exchange are by the order given until Sept. 9 to abrogate rule 10, which provides that any member of the exchange who sells or buys cattle from an independent operator shall be subject to expulsion.

Mars Fatally Hurt When Machine Falls

Erie, Pa., July 15.—J. C. (Bud) Mars, well known American aviator, probably was fatally injured here when he lost control of his machine in a flight and crashed from a height of several hundred feet to the ground. The heavy biplane dropped on him. His injuries are of such a nature, it is said, that there is practically no hope for his recovery.

DENEEN TELLS OF ILLINOIS FIGHTS

Governor Gives Rating of Political Leaders.

CLASH OVER SUM IN ADDITION

Hanecy Attempts to Show Witness Organized Legislature During His Term as Governor—Says Figures Are Correct, but Conclusions Wrong.

Washington, July 15.—For nearly six hours Governor Deneen of Illinois underwent cross-examination by counsel for Senator Lorimer concerning the testimony the governor gave to the senate committee investigating the election of Senator Lorimer.

Nearly every phase of Illinois politics was entered into by Attorney Elbridge Hanecy in cross-examining the witness. The testimony constitutes a history of political alignments in Illinois from the time Mr. Deneen was first elected state's attorney for Cook county.

Mr. Hanecy sought to show that it was Deneen who organized the legislature during his term as governor and not Lorimer, but Mr. Deneen was certain that he did not dictate the chairmen of committees and that Lorimer had attended a conference "somewhere" wherein it was agreed to have the minority Republicans and Democrats organize the house which voted for Lorimer.

Mr. Hanecy sought to show that if fifteen Deneen men had voted for Hopkins on the first day's balloting for senator Hopkins would have been elected. Mr. Deneen was not willing to say that all these fifteen were full fledged Deneen men.

"Hopkins received sixty-one votes in the house," said Mr. Hanecy, "and these fifteen more would make seventy-six, and that would have been enough to have elected him, wouldn't it, for you say he had a majority in the senate?"

"Well, sixty-one and fifteen make seventy-six," responded Mr. Deneen. "That far you are correct. Your addition is correct, but your conclusion is wrong. He would have been elected had the sixty-one not changed their votes, but they would have changed."

Mr. Hanecy led Governor Deneen by a long series of questions to give a rating to the political standing of most of the Republican leaders of Chicago for several years past. At one point Governor Deneen said Lorimer supported him for state's attorney, but declined to give the senator all the credit for his nomination, either for the first or second term.

COMMITTEE PROBES CHARGES

House Wants to Know Who Wants Dr. Wiley Ousted and Why.

Washington, July 15.—The charges made against Dr. Harvey W. Wiley of the bureau of chemistry were taken up by the house committee on expenditures in the department of agriculture.

It was declared that the committee wanted to know "who wanted Dr. Wiley fired, and why," the recommendation that pure foods experts be dismissed, and the reasons therefor, it is said, will be thoroughly gone into.

The committee decided to call at once upon Secretary of Agriculture Wilson for a copy of all the charges, testimony and other papers in the case, and to begin the investigation immediately upon their receipt. Secretary Wilson, Solicitor McCabe and members of the personnel board which recommended Wiley's removal probably be called first.

Letters and telegrams expressing confidence in Dr. Wiley and urging President Taft to consider carefully the charges made against him by the personnel board of the department and indorsed by Attorney General Wickersham, came pouring into the White House from all over the country.

Many of the messages were from commercial organizations, others from personal friends of the president and of Dr. Wiley.

Secretary James Wilson said that he did not know how soon the doctor's answer to the charges against him might be expected. Secretary Wilson also said that he personally had had little to do with the Wiley case. He said, however, that the personnel board, which recommended his resignation, was a permanent board, such as exists in most governmental departments; that it had not acted hurriedly and that its conclusions had been reached after hearings.

GOFORTH FAMILY SAW TWO FINE RAINS

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Goforth and children returned Thursday night from Palestine, Ill., where they spent a delightful week with Mrs. Goforth's parents, Rev. and Mrs. D. W. Conner. Palestine is only three miles from the Indiana line. The crops look fine and pastures are green and luxuriant in that section, which has not been without rain longer than a period of two weeks since early spring. They saw two good rains in the week they were there, and to hear them tell how the rain looked as it fell and pattered on the roof and on the window pane; how the air was sweetened and freshened by the fragrance from flowers and foliage wet with the rain; and how it blew in their faces, and how Doris Marie and Donald Kieth ran out and played in it and got all soaking wet, why, it's enough to set you crazy. O let's all pray for rain! They visited in St. Louis with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnson on their return trip.

RESTORE GRAY HAIR TO NATURAL COLOR

By Common Garden Sage, a Simple Remedy for Dandruff, Falling, Faded, Gray Hair.

The old idea of using sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers used to have dark, glossy hair at the age of seventy-five, while our mothers have white hair before they are fifty. Our grandmothers used to make a "sage tea" and apply it to their hair. The tea made their hair soft and glossy, and gradually restored the natural color.

One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it, especially as it had to be made every two or three days, on account of souring quickly. This objection has been overcome, and by asking almost any first-class druggist for Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy the public can get a superior preparation of sage, with the admixture of sulphur, another valuable remedy for hair and scalp troubles. Daily use of this preparation will not only quickly restore the color of the hair, but will also stop the hair from falling out and make it grow.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special Agent, Koch Pharmacy.

Idle Capital is an Extravagance

no community can afford; to do anyone a benefit it must be kept moving and to do the most good it should seek legitimate channels. Then let us divorce ourselves from the prevailing "get rich quick" fever and get back to the good ways of our forefathers. Put your money into something at home, where it will HELP YOUR HOME TOWN and enhance the other interests you may have. Why not build a home? There's no satisfaction like that borne of the knowledge you own a home. Start it today and tomorrow you'll awaken with a feeling of independence like that of 1776. Of course you'll need lumber, but we can quickly help you out, as our stock is complete and most orders can be filled the day we get them.
